Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Dr. Robert M. McMillan:

You have taught us, our God, to pray for the powers of government that the populace might lead a peaceable life in an atmosphere of satisfying provision for their personal and social needs. To this end these thy servants toil and debate that our beloved state, so richly endowed with natural environmental beauty, may also have social endowments advantageous to young and old alike.

So then, our God, we view bills presented before this body as instruments contributing to your will for us. So may these servants also consider their activities in the context of your purpose in realizing a state where thy will is done even as it is in heaven.

In the name of our Lord. Amen.
